

NEWSLETTER TO SUPPORTERS: JANUARY 2012

PARTY

As many of you know, in November, Prisoners' Penfriends held a party to celebrate the fact that we have now exchanged over 10,000 letters between our volunteer and prisoner penfriends.

The party was a very happy event, giving penfriends, patrons, trustees, donors and other supporters the opportunity to meet, exchange views and describe experiences. Thanks to everyone who made the effort to come and, once again, thanks to everyone who makes our work possible.

We've made amazing progress in the first few years of our existence and we look forward to the future with confidence.

Former offenders in the community

Over the last couple of years, it has been made possible for residents of a Langley House hostel and resettlement project to write to penfriends. The hostel residents and those who live in the resettlement project are often former offenders who are being helped to re-start their lives.

Langley House Trust has now made our penfriend scheme available to residents in all their other projects. We are delighted to be able to help.

Patrons: Sir Nicholas Hytner, Sir Peter Lloyd, Fay Weldon, Lord Ramsbotham.
